PRICE THREE CENTS

OPPOSITION IN COMMITTEEMAN RACE DEVELOPS

W. Snyder To Oppose Stock's Candidacy; J. Price Oyer Out For Chairmanship.

Opposition to the candidacy of P. C. Stock, president of council, as Republican state committeeman from Adams county, has developed, and the fight for the position may now resolve itself into a free-for-all, leaders in the party say.

One avowed candidate has entered the lists against Mr. Stock, it was learned today, when nominating petitions for Walter Snyder, Chambersburg street, a brother of C. I. Snyder, treasurer of the Adams county Republican committee, were being circulated for signatures.

Both Unpledged

Mr. Snyder is an unpledged candidate, and he has said that, if elected, he will do what to him seems best for the Republican party in Pennsylvania and Adams county. Mr. Stock also is unpledged to either the Mellon or Vane faction of the party in the state.

Nominating petitions for S. Gray Bigham, of Biglerville, to have his name appear on the Republican ballots as state committeeman were said to be in circulation, and it is possible that Harvey Scott, who has represented Adams county in Republican state councils for a number of years, will also be a candidate.

Mr. Bigham was defeated for committeeman several years ago in a three-cornered race with Robert Wilson, Littlestown, and Mr. Scott, the successful candidate.

Oyer For Chairman

Whoever else enters the Republican state committeeman race will have to work quickly since March 5 is the last day for filing nominating petitions with the state election bureau at Harrisburg. One hundred signatures are required to the petition.

A nominating petition to have the name of J. Price Oyer, York street, appear in the Republican ballots at the spring primary as Republican county chairman was filed in the office of the Adams county commissioners, Wednesday afternoon. Whether this forecasts a fight for the position depends upon G. Harry Roth, the present chairman, who wrested Mr. Oyer's sceptre from him two years ago. Mr. Roth has been quoted that he would seek re-election and again that he would not contest the position.

From New Oxford today came reports today that George D. Sheely, of Oxford township, had nominating petitions in circulation as Republican candidate for the state legislature.

In 1916, Mr. Sheely was defeated for the position of D. Calvin Rudisill, Gettysburg R. D. Clarence A. Willis, of Greenstone, formally announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for representative in the general assembly, and interest in the Republican primary is growing daily.

March 19 is the last day for Republicans and Democrats to file nominating petitions with the commissioners for strictly party offices to be filled at the spring primary April 24.

Little activity is noted in the Democratic camp. Democrats do not elect a county chairman at the primary, rules of that party specifying that committeemen elected at the primary shall meet as soon thereafter to choose a chairman.

Fix Out of Race

In the refusal of A. F. Fix, a Democratic leader in York county, to run as a delegate to the Democratic national convention, the field is left open to J. W. Gitt, York publisher, and J. L. Williams, Gettysburg attorney, both of whom have filed their nominating petitions with the state election bureau.

After a conference of party leaders, Mr. Fix advised support of Mr. Gitt and Mr. Williams as "the surest means of preserving harmony" in the twenty-second congressional district. A running mate for I. L. Taylor, Gettysburg, Republican candidate as delegate to the national convention of his party, has not yet come forward in York county, but an early announcement is expected from a prominent resident of Hanover, it was said.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stough, New Oxford, at the Warner hospital, Wednesday afternoon. Both mother and child are doing nicely.

FARM WEATHER REPORT

Eastern Pennsylvania: Generally fair tonight and Friday; colder tonight.

Doe Likely to be Thinned This Year if Farmers in County Have More Damage

If the does in the mountains in Adams county continue to damage the orchards during the coming months as they have been doing since the hunting season closed last December, it is entirely likely that an open season will be declared next fall, Leo Bushman, state game protector, said.

According to Mr. Bushman the deer have been doing considerable damage in the orchard section of the county from Fairfield to the northern end of the county and the orchardists have been killing a number of them. Between ten and fifteen have been shot since the first of the year when they were found grazing on the tender apple twigs and pulling off the bark on the trees. While only one farmer reported that they had damaged his wheat crop, Mr. Bushman said that it had not been hurt seriously and refused to permit the farmer to shoot the animals, but stated that after the frost is out of the ground if the deer continue to feed on the shoots those who suffer damage will be given permission to kill the marauding animals.

The deer are leaving this section of the country, Mr. Bushman said today and are migrating to Maryland where they have better forage on the undergrowth which follows in the path of a forest fire. At the present time the deer population is far below the ordinary number and it is expected that the animals will continue their southern migration during the coming spring and summer.

The members of the state game commission stated recently that no action on the thinning out of the doe will be taken before the May meeting of the commission and that a careful study of the situation is now being made. Ross L. Leffler, of McKeesport, president of the commission, stated that small game was in a very satisfactory condition and that the commission is making plans to keep the state well stocked. In regard to the number of squirrels shot last season he said that this was due to the migration of the animals to places where food is plentiful. County farmers suffered considerable loss last year to the ravages of squirrels and they are reported as being plentiful again this year.

$2500 CLAIM TO BRING HEARING

Legal Status of Two Notes Presented by Wife of Bankrupt Butcher to be Studied.

A claim of $2,500 in the form of two notes, presented by Mrs. C. E. Pitzer at the first meeting of creditors of her bankrupt husband's estate, this morning, was strenuously objected to by attorneys for the trustee, G. R. Thompson, who was elected at today's meeting.

As a result of Mrs. Pitzer's claim, a hearing to determine if the notes have any legal status and can be filed along with other claims against Mr. Pitzer's estate will be held by the trustee. The date of the hearing has not been fixed.

Bond for Mr. Thompson was fixed at $25,000. Attorneys J. Donald Swope and J. L. Williams are counsel for the trustee.

The meeting of creditors was held at 10 o'clock this morning by Attorney William Kurtz, of York, referee in bankruptcy for York county, to whom schedules of the bankrupt's assets and debts were sent by the federal district court.

TESTER OF COWS RESIGNS OFFICE

J. H. Phillipy To Go On Farm in Neighboring County; Gives February Report.

The resignation of J. H. Phillipy, tester for the Adams County Cow Testing association since last July, was presented to a meeting of the directors of the organization at the court house, Wednesday evening.

Mr. Phillipy, who will quit his position in the county on April 1, plans to move on a farm in Franklin county. The directors accepted the resignation with regret, and spoke highly of the excellent work done by Mr. Phillipy since coming to Adams county last year. His successor has not been named.

Mr. Phillipy's report for February showed that 218 cows in 26 herds were tested during the month. The number of cows producing over 40 pounds of butter fat was 25, with five cows giving more than 50 pounds of fat. Sixty-two cows yielded more than 1,000 pounds of milk, and 31 gave more than 1,200 pounds of milk. Owners of the ten best yielding cows tested during the month, the quantity of milk and butter fat each produced follow:

TRAPPING SEASON ENDS FOR YEAR

The trapping and dog-training seasons ended February 29, Leo Bushman, Adams county game warden, advised today.

Beginning today, all dogs must be kept tied or on leash when accompanying their owners.

EXTENSIONISTS TO PUSH DAIRY WORK THIS YEAR

Methods Of Improving Herds Will Be Stress- ed As Feature Of Program For 1928.

Dairy improvement will be one of the major projects of the Adams county agricultural extension association in 1928, the directors of the organization decided at a meeting in the office of R. E. Underwood, farm agent, Wednesday evening.

In connection with the dairy improvement program outlined for the county, the directors decided to urge the importation of high-producing cows, the establishment of boys' and girls' dairy calf clubs, and the adoption of tuberculin testing on the accredited area herd plan.

Harry Brown, Fairfield, president of the extension association, presided at the meeting. Each director is a project leader in his respective community, and each will hold group meetings later to outline the activities in his particular section.

Add Community

A new community was elected to the association bringing the total to fourteen. The community is at Hampton, and Edgar Leer, of Hampton, was elected to the executive committee of the county association. Joseph C. Klunk, of the McSherrytown community, was elected to membership on the executive committee.

The community programs will get under way March 12, and in addition to dairy improvement projects will include baby beef work in Littlestown and McSherrytown communities, county-wide 400-bushel potato clubs, spraying demonstrations in the northern end of the county on the farms of John Peters, C. H. Musselman and Robert Eldon, where a three-year program is under way and boys' and girls' acre corn clubs.

The directors also voted to purchase a stereopticon lantern for use at community meetings. United States government slides on agriculture will be used in connection with the lantern.

Members of the executive committee at the meeting included, besides President Brown, John C. Bream, R. M. Spangler, Irvin Hostetter, E. F. Strausbaugh and R. E. Underwood.

The meeting will be open to the public.

TO SPEAK ON GARDENS

Jesse Huffington, home garden extension specialist at State college, will be in Adams county Friday, Saturday and next Monday to conduct home garden demonstrations. On Monday he will meet string bean growers in the upper end of the county, relative to raising beans for canning factories.

Four Years Until Couple Can Mark First Anniversary

If there is truth to the saying that the first year of the married life is the hardest Mr. and Mrs. James H. White, of Liberty township will have a long time to test out the correctness of this adage, for they will observe their first anniversary just four years hence, when February 29 comes around again.

The couple were married Wednesday evening by J. Walter Kugler, Liberty township justice of the peace. Mrs. White before her marriage to Mr. White was Mrs. Ruth Olive Roser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Young, of Woodsboro, Maryland. Mr. White is a son of "Judge" A. H. White. Both are residents of Liberty township where they will reside on Mr. White's farm.

Mrs. Pinchot in 3-Cornered Race

Scranton, March 1.—(AP)—Political advice today from Wayne county indicated that the congressional campaign in the 15th Pennsylvania district may develop into a spirited three-cornered battle for the Republican nomination.

Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, wife of the former governor, and Congresswoman Louis T. McFadden, chairman of the house banking committee, have already announced themselves as candidates for congress. Today advice from Wayne county said that Chester A. Garrett, an attorney of Honesdale, is expected to enter the contest.

STATE POLICE STATION CLOSED

Sergeant Merrifield Is Moved To Chambersburg; No Assignment Made For County.

The local sub-station of state police was closed this afternoon for an indefinite period. Sergeant Joseph Merrifield, who has been in charge of the local office since last July, today received orders from his company commander in Harrisburg to reopen the Chambersburg sub-station. He formerly was located in the Franklin county seat town.

Sergeant Merrifield said he did not know how long Gettysburg and Adams county will be without the services of a sub-station. He said that the probable reason for not sending an officer here to relieve him was that most of the troops are in the coal fields of western Pennsylvania, pending settlement of a protracted strike in the soft coal industry.

SCHOOL LEAGUE RACE TIGHTENS

With the interscholastic league season fast drawing to a close, three teams remain in the running for the honors. Reading and Williamsport, now deadlocked for first place, and Gettysburg, a close second, are the trio having chances for the bunting.

This week's games call for each of the three contestants to play two games. Gettysburg plays Steelton on the John Harris floor on Friday night. John Harris plays at Williamsport and Lebanon visits Reading. These are the only games booked for Friday night.

On Saturday night Coach Riden's fast stepping Sunbury passers will visit the Martinsen. Williamsport will meet a stiff project in Lancaster and Reading will tangle with William Penn, on foreign floors. The other contest scheduled for Saturday is Steelton at Lebanon.

The Maroons have been working hard for their games. Both tilts will be tests for the locals and it is imperative for the Martinsen to win both contests. Saturday's game with Sunbury will be the local fans' last chance to see the Maroons in action as it is the last home game.

Double Of Ship Captain Sought For Forgeries

New York, March 1.—(AP)—A "double" of Commodore Harold A. Cunningham, commander of the Leviathan, was sought by police today to explain the scattering of $6,500 in worthless checks among hotels and shops in Atlantic City where he posed as master of the big liner.

When Commodore Cunningham docked the Leviathan on Monday his first telephone call was from a woman who identified herself as "Rose" and explained that she had sold her beauty parlor in Philadelphia and was ready to open on the Leviathan as "Cunningham" had arranged in Atlantic City.

There followed a flood of letters and telegrams from other women and barked Atlantic City merchants. The commodore established that he never had been in Atlantic City.

White Way Planned by Merchants on North Side Of Chambersburg Street

Plans Underway To Have Light Standards Placed In Front Of Business Places By Several Property Owners; Seen As Best Solution For Solving Problem Of Adequate Street Lighting On Principal Street.

Undaunted by council's refusal to accept payment for the installation of a proposed white way for Gettysburg's principal streets in the business section of town, a number of businessmen on the north side of the first block of Chambersburg street are discussing the erection of a series of electric light standards from Center Square to North Washington street.

Although no definite steps have been taken toward installation of the proposed white way on the one side of Chambersburg street, conferences leading up to that end are being held, several businessmen in the block said today.

The proposed illumination of the north side of the street was brought to a head by the installation by David Blocher, a jewelry store proprietor, of a single-light ornamental standard in front of his new place of business. The new light standard makes a favorable impression upon other businessmen in the block and they immediately began discussion of a privately-installed white way.

Persons interested in securing the white way on Chambersburg street said it was planned that businessmen purchase standards similar to the one erected by Mr. Blocher, although somewhat smaller in height.

Pittsburgh, March 1.—(AP)—Internal revenue collectors in the Western Pennsylvania district today were planning to collect more than $400,000 in taxes from convicted bootleggers.

Fresh fish, oysters and clams at Minter's, gers.

It is planned to have the poles approximately 75 feet apart and lit with 300-candlepower bulbs. One of the problems confronting the proponents of the movement is the making of some arrangement whereby the lights would all be turned on at a certain hour and extinguished at a certain hour, so that there would be uniformity throughout. It was suggested that this problem might be overcome by placing switch boxes outside the various business places and having the night officer attend to the lighting and extinguishing of the lights.

Bear Entire Cost
Persons interested in securing the white way on the north side of Chambersburg street expressed the belief that if the standards are placed on their side of the street the businessmen on the opposite side of the thoroughfare would be quick to follow suit.

Under the plans now being discussed for the white way, current for the lights would be secured from the business places in front of which the standards would be placed. The entire cost of installation and maintenance would be borne by those interested.

In the event the persons working for the lighting of the entire block fail to interest those businessmen in front of whose places the standards would have to be erected to maintain the uniform distance of 75 feet between each pole, a number of them today said they probably would go ahead on their own initiative and place light standards in front of their places of business.

One prominent businessman in the block said the cost of placing a light standard in front of his place of business would be far less than the amount he had been called upon to subscribe toward the white way project turned down by council two years ago.

The price of the standards which several of the businessmen on Chambersburg street said they were planning to install is $65, and the total cost of installation was not more than $25.

Revival Meetings Attracting Many To Auditorium

Interest in the revival meetings being conducted at the Gettysburg auditorium, Fourth and Hanover streets, by the Rev. Dr. Henry W. Stough have been increasing in interest recently according to reports. The afternoon meetings which are held five days a week have also been attracting interested crowds, the evangelist states.

At the service Wednesday evening, Doctor Stough delivered a sermon on "Worry, Its Cause, Its Cure, Its Cure," and in the course of his remarks asserted that "a worrier may be a Christian by profession but he is not one by practice, for the one besetting sin of the world is worry." He went on to give in detail the manner in which worry affects the human mind, body and soul and pointed out that a majority of the trouble people must undergo is induced by worry.

A song service preceded the sermon, during which Paul Stough, son of the evangelist, rendered several selections.

So plentiful were the diamonds, said one speaker, that they were lying on the surface waiting to be picked up.

Minister of Mines Beyers added his voice to the description informing the assembly that the discoveries were "unique in the history of the country."

AMUSEMENTS

"THE GORILLA" COMEDY
Mystery Film at Strand
Comedy is supposed to be closely akin to tragedy. The greatest comedians and critics say the best comedy is that which is mingled with pathos, and it is this that Charlie Murray, who is featured in "The Gorilla," has all the laughs coming to him.

"The Gorilla" is the hilarious and hysterical mystery comedy coming to the Strand theatre tonight, Friday and Saturday, in which Murray and Fred Kelsey combine to form a new screen team.

And one must not forget the gorilla himself. There is where Charlie Murray and his pathos and comedy come in. It's comedy for the audience to see him playing around cliff, houseposts, cellars, etc., etc., with a nine foot, four hundred pound ape man, but as for Murray, let the pathos speak for itself. Just place yourself in the same predicament and imagine the fun.

Will Hays Tells Tea Pot Dome Investigating Committee of Donations From Oil Man.

Washington, March 1.—(AP)—The disclosure that Harry F. Sinclair made a net contribution of $160,000 to the Republican national committee after the 1920 campaign was made today by Will H. Hays, who appeared at his own request as a witness in the senate Tea Pot Dome investigation.

Hays, who is a former chairman of the national committee, testified that in addition to the $75,000 which Sinclair had previously been credited with giving the committee, he had turned over $85,000 in bonds. These bonds were later returned but Sinclair gave back $85,000, he said.

The former Republican chairman disclaimed all knowledge of the operations of the Continental trading company in which Sinclair was interested and whose financial affairs the committee is investigating.

Swedes Too Thrifty To 'Phone To U. S.

Stockholm, March 1.—Sweden evidently just can't use the transatlantic phone. Not even the novelty of being able to call up relatives in the Northwestern American States intrigues the thrifty Scandinavians. Although advertising has not yet been resorted to, it is the consensus here that even these high pressure methods will fail to convince them it is profitable to speak across the Atlantic.

In a statement given out Wednesday the telephone director of Stockholm bemoans the fact that not a single call either to or from America has been made since the service was opened more than a week ago.

"RELIGION AND HEALTH"

Thursday
"Counting on God."
SCRIPTURE: Memory Verse: "Fret not thyself" (Psalm 37:1).
Read: Psalm 37:1-8.

MEDITATION: Three times in the short passage for today the author says, "Fret not thyself." He adds: "It tendeth only to evil." It frays the soul and robs the spirit of peace and power. Religion has at the core of it the belief that at the heart of this universe there is a Spirit working ceaselessly in behalf of truth and justice. And this Spirit can never finally be defeated.

After the famous decision in the House of Lords concerning the funds of the United Presbyterian Churches of Scotland, a decision which was very disheartening to a group of Scottish leaders, some asked how Professor Rainey was taking it. "As smiling and happy as ever," was the reply. "And why," because he has been long years rooted in God, he is an experienced Christian. The "experienced Christian" knows that the triumph of error and wrong is short. Right wins.

PRAYER: O Lord, give us hearts never to forget Thy love, but do dwell therein, whatever we do, whether we sleep or wake, live or die, or rise again to the life that is to come. For Thy love is better than life, and is our sufficient hope. Through Christ our Lord.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache Often Means You Have Not Been Drinking Enough Water.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water.—adv.

Guard Against "Flu" With Musterole

Influenza, Grippe and Pneumonia usually start with a cold. The moment you get those warning aches rub on good old Musterole. Musterole relieves the congestion and stimulates circulation. It has all the good qualities of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister. First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief. Have Musterole handy for emergency use. It may prevent serious illness.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

When the jests of your friends seem stale, and the shout of your boy torments,
You are tired, old man, and you ought to get out of your world of dollars and cents.

When censure is quick on your tongue and you rage over trifles small,
When you don't hear one-half that is said, and you don't seem yourself at all;

When you haven't an ache or a pain, yet you jump at the slightest sound,

It isn't a doctor you want to see, but it's ocean and sky and ground.

Your body is hale, but your soul is sick and cramped in its house of clay.

And it wants to be freed from dollars and cents to drift with its dreams away.

Oh you may breathe in the city air, and batten your strength for a goal.

But the break will come if you pay no heed to the cry of your shackled soul.

"Well, today's the last of the month," all of a sudden exclaimed Uncle Lucky, as he and his small bunny nephew glided along in the good old Sledmobile.

"You are mistaken!" all of a sudden cried a voice, and there on a limb overhead at Professor Jim Crow, with his Wisdom Book under his wing. "This is Leap Year!"

"So it is," observed the old gentleman rabbit, correcting himself. "I had forgotten that for the moment. A good year for rabbits, I'll say. We might call it Hop Year in Rabbitland." "Ha, ha!" laughed Professor Jim Crow. "That gives me an idea for my Wisdom Book. Wait just a minute till I jot down something," and taking out his fountain pen, that wise old crow carefully wrote on a new page:

"To February every four years is added one day more."

"There, that will remind me not to lose tomorrow," he added, tucking his fountain pen in his feather waistcoat pocket.

"You remembered it all right just now," cried the little bunny, looking up with admiration at the good professor bird.

"But I might not tomorrow," cawed the wise old blackbird. "I might date by letters March 1st. That would be a dreadful error," and away he flew to the cornfield nearby. All of a sudden he shouted:

"Come over here! Come over here!"

"What has happened, I wonder?" questioned the old gentleman rabbit, hopping quickly from the Sledmobile. Over the low stone fence and across the snow-covered ground he hopped, followed by his little bunny nephew.

"Listen," whispered Professor Jim Crow, who had perched himself on a corn-shock. Laying his ear against a stalk, the old gentleman presently began to smile. "Mice!" he chuckled.

"I hear them moving about," cried the little bunny, one of his long ears closely pressed against the corn-stalks.

"All through the winter these little mice have kept nice and warm," explained Professor Jim Crow. "Yes, sir, these corn-shocks are much warmer than the barn. Besides, plenty of nubbins have been left from the husking, and these little mice can shell the corn from the cob and eat to their hearts' content."

"Well, I declare!" exclaimed the old gentleman bunny.

"In their tiny nests of corn-silk, hidden away within the stiff, empty husks, they have been safe from driving rain and blinding snowstorm. Jack Frost has never been able to make a call on them, hidden away so cozily in the very center of the shock," went on the wise old crow professor.

"These corn shocks after a snow storm look just like tents," laughed the

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

WHOM DO YOU KNOW?

WE REALLY know no one—not even ourselves! If we did know ourselves, we wouldn't allow so many blunders to be made. Or we would guide ourselves over safer and better ground.

I know no one knows me, and I really do not know my best friend. How very often, after an intimate association of years, we learn how little of understanding there is between us and our most beloved.

It often takes a very simple and innocent happening to reveal how little we do know about one whom we thought we knew a great deal.

If we were not taught early that there is a God behind all the movements of life, its loves, hates, joys, sorrows, tragedies, triumphs, defeats, we would of ourselves have invented one.

The ablest and most ignorant alike in all the history of human life have all in turn bowed their heads to some silent, invisible God-Father or Understander. For in every activity of success or failure, these souls of ours simply must have somebody to talk to. And so most of us talk to God.

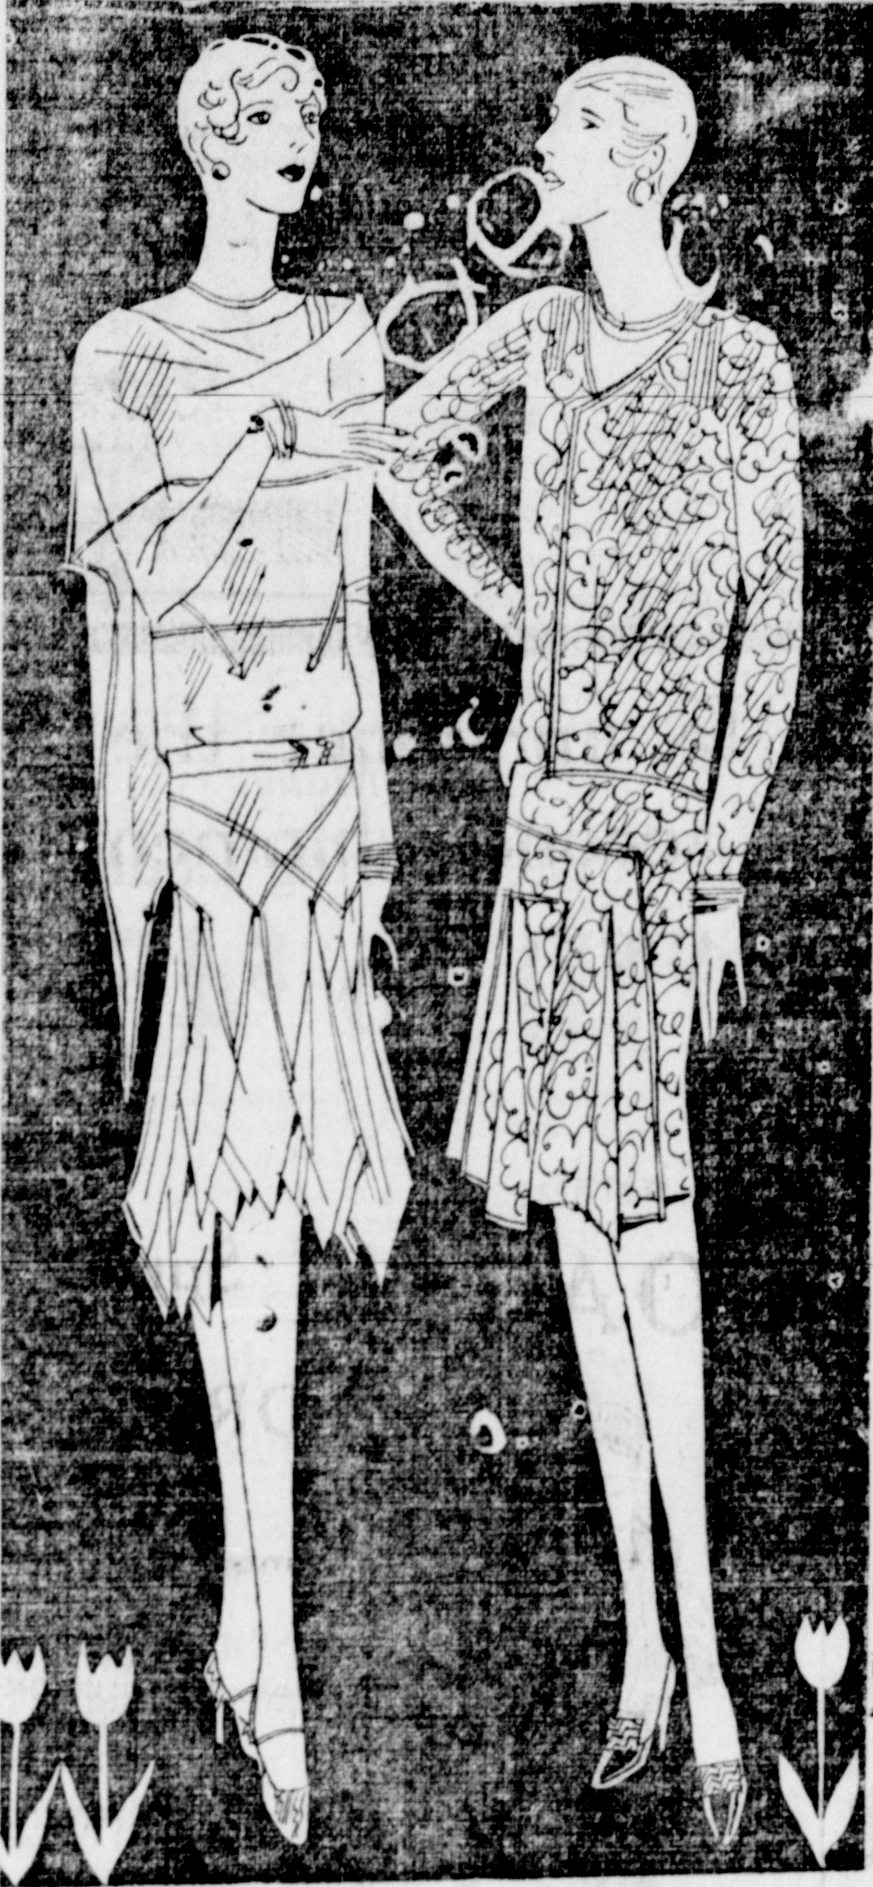

We, somehow, never doubt but that He knows us perfectly, and so we place our sins and good deeds before Him on the same table, ask Him to judge us aright and lead us safely through the most perilous paths.

It doesn't bother us if there are those who think us foolish and un-intelligent. We will have our heart to the Sun of this God's love until the golden rays have burned every atom of dross away and left this heart clean like the new one in a baby's body.

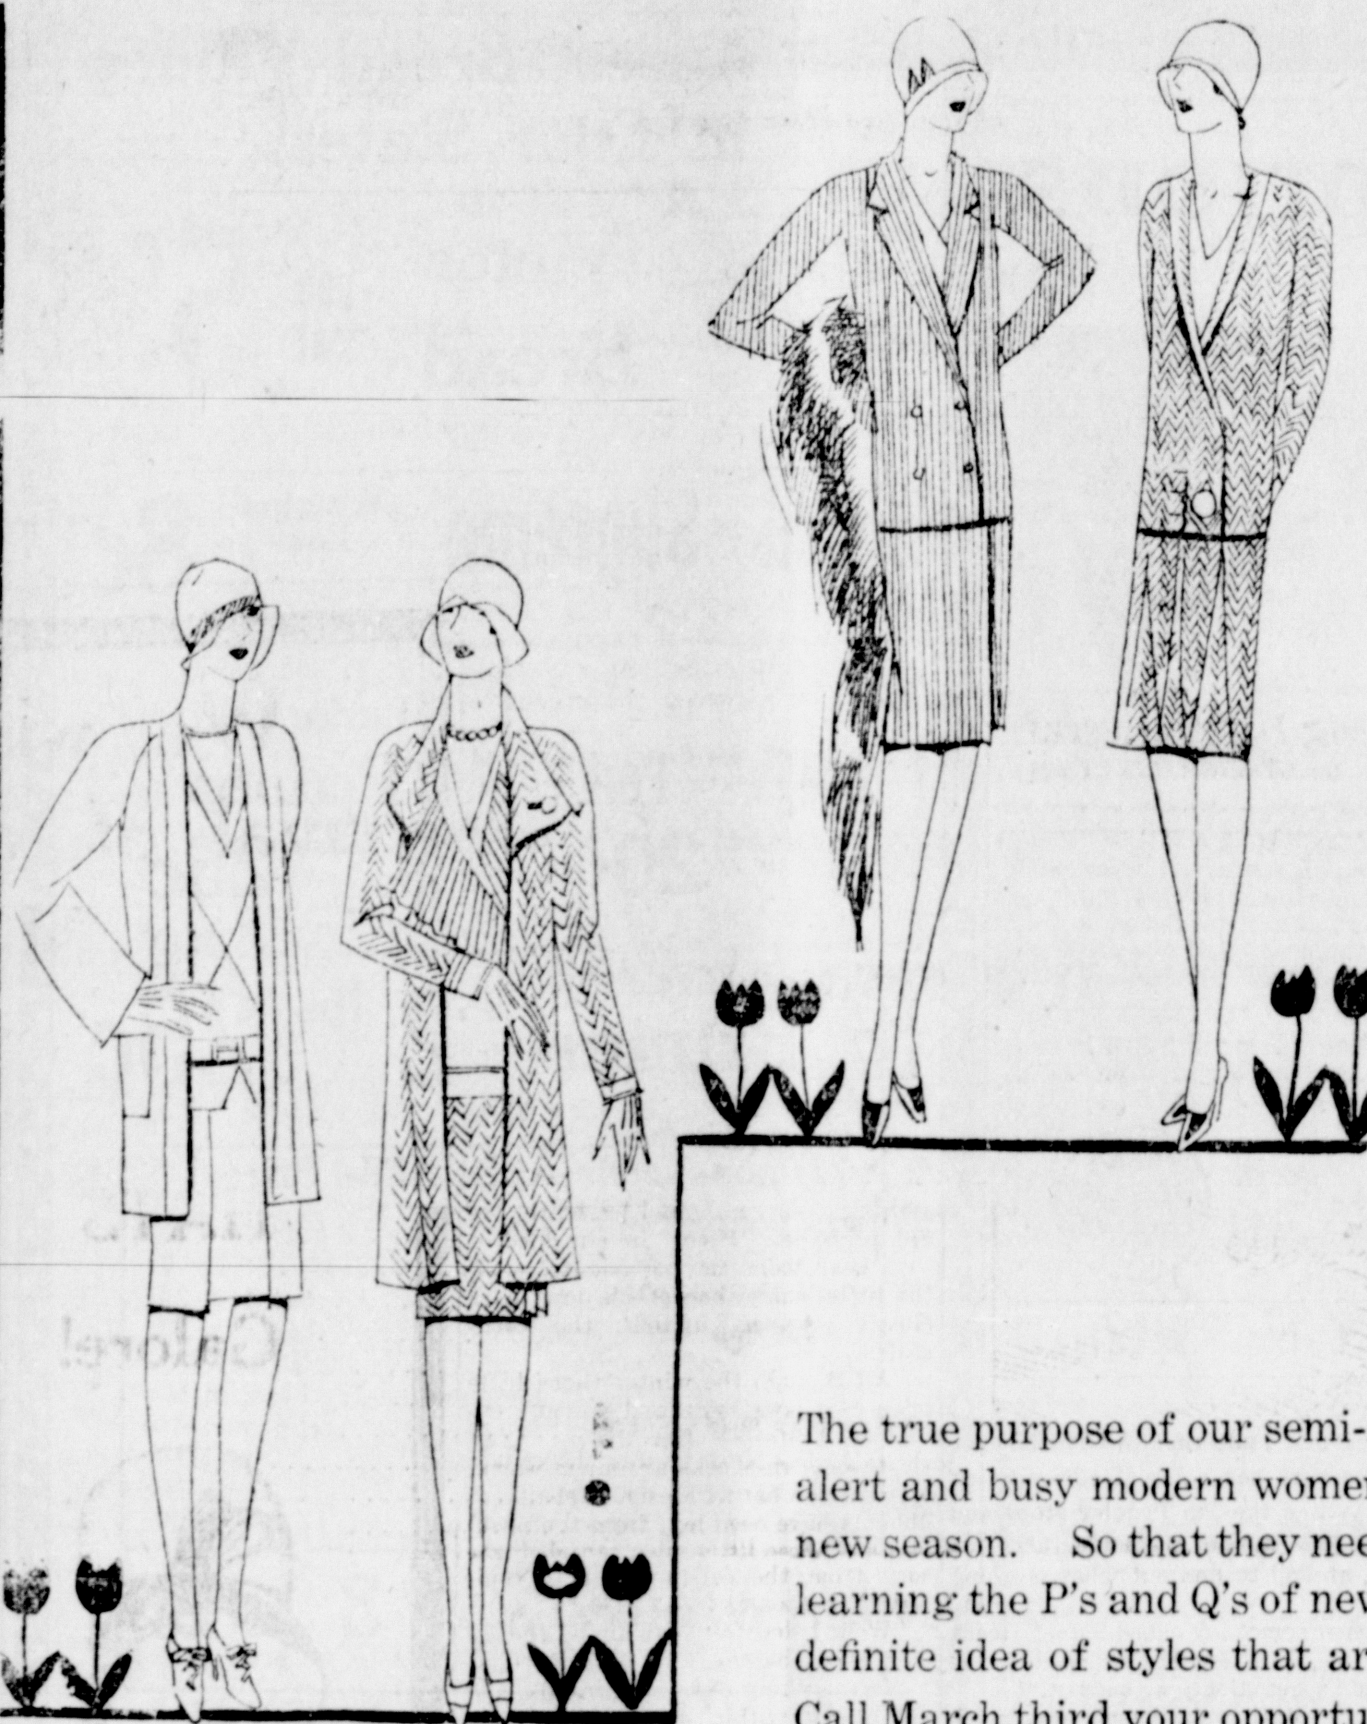

We do not fear the verdicts of this God, because we know Him. We breathe our problems and our doubts to Him, as naturally and spontaneously as a Mother breathes her own breath into that of her expectant babe.

A human being's intimacy with God is the only true intimacy possible. It is as free as the air, as true as the blue of the sky.

Spring Exposition

The Frocks of Spring
that Feature Soft Details
Lead All the Rest

The true purpose of our semi-fashion exposition is to put before the world of alert and busy modern women a complete picture of the apparel mode for a new season. So that they need spend no vast amount of valuable time in learning the P's and Q's of new fashion—but may take in at one long glance a definite idea of styles that are approved.

Call March third your opportunity-day. For that is when new fashions in coats and frocks—suits and ensembles—millinery and dress accessories—are to be formally presented. A style parade will be a feature of both afternoon and evening. Surely during this event you can attain a satisfyingly complete education as to what modes will be good and what modes will be best throughout the glorious spring! Living model displays—2:30 and 7:00, Saturday.

Gay Things for an Active Spring Are Already Present

Our sports apparel sections reflect the spirit of spring, even more definitely than many of the others. Hanging on numerous racks are blithe-colored sweaters so sheer one could tuck them in her handbag, almost. And ready to be brought out for you are countless perky sports frocks and many clever separate skirts. Prepare for an active spring, during which you are trigly and gaily clad—every moment.

New Hosiery has Worth as a Frock Smartener

Hosiery is no longer chosen for its separate charm alone—but for the chic it can contribute to a costume. Indeed, this Spring it ranks in importance with gloves, and scarfs and handbags as a smartener of daytime frocks. Visit our hosiery department and select the various new shades to go with your costume for Spring. Underwear and the proper foundation garments give the last touch of the "well dressed feel."

Changes Have Taken Place in Handbags and Gloves

The same gloves and the same handbags have satisfied the feminine world for many months. But now that spring is here every alert person looks for pronounced fashion changes in each. And she finds them here. In handbags there is a certain gaiety; clasps are jeweled, shell frames are bright, and so on. In gloves there are new colors to complement the costume superbly.

Scarfs and Boutonnieres

Appreciating the importance of just the bright scarf and the correct boutonniere—you will choose these incidentals to chic where fashions are authentic. If you are looking for a particularly swanky scarf to complement your suit, you'll find the perfect one here; also unusually pretty pearl and crystal boutonnieres.

Under Our Own Management

Beginning Saturday the entire Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Department will be under our own management. We will endeavor to have proper sizes in merchandise of all classes. We will also be in a wonderful position to order just what you want in your own size.

The very smartest frock a smart woman can choose for herself this spring is a frock that is markedly feminine. Whether she is choosing for sports or afternoon wear she can do no better than to look for softness expressed in line and trimming detail. Scarf necklines and plaited tiers, cape collars and side drapings make the printed and plain crepe frocks of spring enormously becoming as well as temptingly pretty. A charming pair is illustrated above.

Spring Coats Frequently Wear Capes

Heartening news to the women who adore them—coats are wearing capes this spring! Sports coats in tweeds and ombre plaids, and more dressy wraps, also, endorse both brief and elongated capes. The fabrics that make these coats will invoke favorable comments, too. For they're woolens, for the most part; and woolens unbelievably soft.

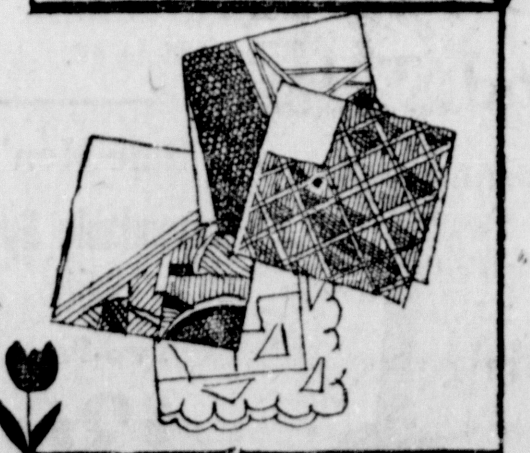

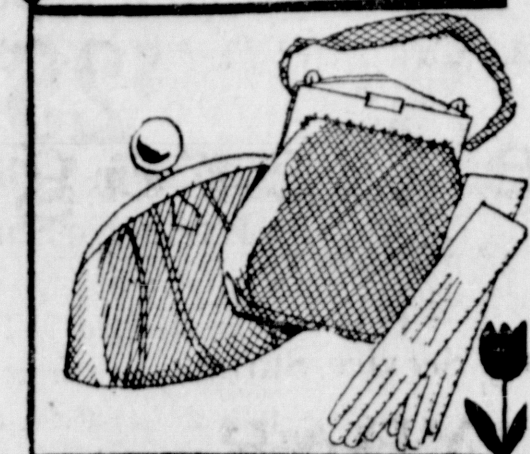

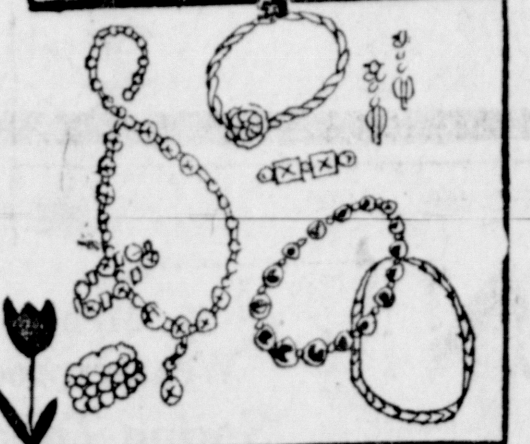

The Tailored Suit Earns Fashion Glory

It is a more softly tailored garment—the two-piece suit of Spring 1928. A suit that college misses will take to eagerly. When it is developed in the fashion-beloved tweed, it is often quite colorful. When it comes in pin-striped material, the accessories it calls for are smartly tailored. Whatever its medium, the suit is a right fashion for spring!

Ensembles Rank Importantly in the Mode

That wardrobe is not altogether fashion-right which omits the ensemble this spring. Nor would many women care to be without a matching-coat-and-frock costume in a season of such lovely ones. There is the combine that features a skirt and three-quarter coat of tweed; and the outfit joining a soft woolen coat of seven-eighths length and a frock of silk.

Skin Eruptions

successfully treated from within

SKILLED physicians recognize the appearance of pimples, boils and other skin eruptions as being an indication of an abnormal condition of the system.

This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of these unsightly blemishes and painful skin annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S.

You owe it to yourself and friends to give S.S.S. a trial. It helps Nature build rich, red blood—those vitalizing elements in the blood that build and sustain the body.

In building rich, red blood cells, S.S.S. improves the processes by which the body is nourished.

"I suffered from impure blood—was weak, and I had lost so much weight, I didn't look natural. I had pimples, and was also bothered with a breaking-out that itched terribly. I also had boils one after another. I tried different kinds of remedies, but nothing did me any good until a friend advised me to take S.S.S., which I did. This was some time ago. Now I feel well, and I am getting along fine. S.S.S. stopped the itching and it cured me of boils. I advise all weak and run-down people to give S.S.S. a trial. It clears up the skin and makes you strong and fills you with energy."—Mrs. J. W. Barker, 1337 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Get the larger size. It is more economical.

TOUGHEST OF OLD HANG-ON COUGHS GO

Why send a boy to do man's work?

Sweet, sugary cough syrups may help a simple cough, but when you are traveling along towards the cemetery with a stubborn tight old cough that lingers on and on with the most persistent devilishness then you need a REAL cough medicine and the real destroyer of tough old weakening coughs is Broncholine Emulsion.

The cough may be so tantalizing that you can't sleep nights and your days may be filled with racking torture, yet that's just the kind of a cough that Broncholine likes to tackle and conquer.

Many times a few doses will stop the hacking and loosen things up and you can depend upon half a bottle to make a two months' die hard cough quit cold and disappear.

Life is sweet—it will be much sweeter when you get rid of that old time cough that wears you down.

Ask People's Drug Store or any wide awake dealer anywhere for a bottle of Broncholine Emulsion. There's no dope in it—or chloroform, and a couple of teaspoonfuls will usually end any ordinary cough.—adv.

Eat as You Did in Childhood

How you can safely eat whatever you fancy

Do you remember the school days long ago when your appetite was good and you could "eat anything"? Perhaps you yearn for a digestion like that now? You can have it, and easily too!

Most digestive trouble is due to excess stomach acid which ferments the food and causes painful gases to dilate your stomach. Obviously you can only end indigestion and stomach pain by ridding yourself of this root cause, acidity. The quickest, surest and safest way to do this is to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. This brings prompt relief because it instantly neutralizes the excess acid in your stomach and then soothes, heals and strengthens the acid-weakened tissues. Mayr's Wonderful Remedy is of such great therapeutic value in the treatment of digestive troubles that it relieves cases of fifteen and twenty years' standing. Don't delay—get a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy from your druggist today. It will give you glorious relief, so that instead of suffering after each meal you will always enjoy healthy, care-free digestion. Special Agent: People's Drug Store.—adv.

Church Disbands, May Stop Circuit

The Blooming Grove Evangelical congregation, a part of the Hanover Evangelical circuit, of which the Rev. J. E. Newcomer is pastor, voted at a meeting in the church Monday evening to disband, leaving only two of the five original churches in the charge as active organizations. The Pleasant Hill congregation disbanded recently and the church property was sold, while the Porter's Siding church is to be sold as soon as a purchaser can be found.

The lack of interest in the circuit churches is said to have resulted from large numbers of persons living in the rural districts having become the owners of automobiles which enable them to drive into Hanover and other nearby places to attend church services. A number of other members of the circuit have moved away from the district and this too is claimed to have created many vacant pews in the country places of worship.

BLOOMSBURG—Lohengrin's wedding march frequently greets couples leaving the Columbia county court house after obtaining a marriage license. An enterprising music dealer opposite the court house, with a loud speaker attached to a phonograph, plays the march whenever he sees a couple leaving the court house.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
